WALTER WOODWARD, emigrant, pioneer from Kent, England, and possible a brother, Thomas, came to this country in 1628, and later returned to England. In the spring of 1630, only Walter returned to America on the "Good Ship Mary and John", landing at Plymouth, Mass.

In 1635, Walter was recorded on the tax rolls of Plymouth, Mass. In 1635, he settled at Scituate, Mass., about twenty miles north of Plymouth, during a period of migration, of men of Kent, England to Scituate, Mass., which began in 1638, eight years after the landing of the Mayflower.

NOTE: A William Woodworth, from Bristol, England, arrived at Plymouth Mass., in 1623. He settled at Salem, Mass.

Because of religious or political persecutions, these emigrants wished to forget the past scenes, and identify themselves with the changed conditions in America. Since the name Woodward meant "Keeper of the Wood" and since Walter no longer was guardian of the forest of the King of England, but a freeman of Massachusetts, (1641 or 1644) he felt that the name he carried across the sea was misleading and savored of feudalism and tyranny, in the new land, where all the woods were free, the old name was meaningless. But even though he disliked the continued reminder of his surname of office in England, Walter Woodward did not at once break away from every condition and tradition of his former life. He continued to use his name during his lifetime and so affixed it to his last Will and Testament. But he instilled in the minds of his children an idea of liberty and personal freedom, and as a result at his death, his son, Benjamin, in an oath of inventory on the estate appeared before the court at Plymouth, Mass. on March 2, 1685, and swore to the Will of his father as the true inventory of Walter Woodworth, deceased and affixed his own name as Benjamin Woodworth.

The entire family did not change the spelling of their surname at this time, but gradually the descendants of Walter Woodward began spelling it Woodworth, after 1685 or 1686. A record of the family from the original Walter to the fifth generation is recorded in the Little Compton, Rhode Island Vital Statistics, Page 196, under the name Woodworth. The town records of Scituate, Mass. lists three generations of this family and spell the name Woodworth.

James Savage "Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England" page 647 and 648, also records this family under the name Woodworth.

NOTE:

One of six of the first settlers of Scituate, Mass. was Walter Woodworth, who built a house on Kent Street. Page 408, Woodworth Family Mass.

Vol VII, Page 895, Verkus "Compendium of American Genealogy" Walter Woodworth died 1685 or 1686. Came from England to Plymouth, Mass. in 1630; settled at Scituate, Mass. in 1633; a freeman in 1640-1641; surveyor of highways 1645-46-2656, Juror. Member of First Church.

From 1633-34 on, Walter Woodward became Walter Woodworth as per his Will now on record, Plymouth Co. records.

Settling at Scituate Mass., among his Kentish fellowmen, 1633, Walter Woodward entered into the civic and military activities of the community. He was assigned the third lot on Kent Street, along the ocean front at the corner of Meeting House Lane, and there he built a house.

Gradually he acquired land, until he became an extensive land owner. He owned a tract of land on the first Herring Brook, 30 rods below the Stockbridge Mill, where generations afterward stood the residence of the poet, Samuel Woodworth, author of "Old Oaken Bucket".

This Samuel is a lineal descendant of Walter's grandson, Benjamin. (1-Thomas 3-Benjamin 5-Joseph)

Walter owned another tract on the west side of Walnut Tree Hill, west of the present Greenbush or South Scituate Railroad Station, in early times called Walter Woodworth's Hill. In 1644, he was made a freeman. (One record gives the date 1641).

On June 4, 1645, he was appointed surveyor of the highways of Scituate reappointed in 1646, also 1656. In 1666, he purchased 60 acres in Weymouth. His name appears on the town records of Scituate as a juror. In 1654, he was a member of First Church, which ordained Charles Chauncey as their minister. A testimonial of Walter from the Rev. Charles Chauncey says "His religion was not the showy kind, though he enjoyed it as much as some of the more cantankerous Puritans. But, however meek he may have been, in general living, his love of peace and goodwill had its limitations. Walter was just, for when his next door neighbor, Japnet Turner, in 1661, pulled down his fence and obliterated his boundry lines, Walter promptly sued him and obtained a verdict of L5 and costs. The moral effect of this was healthy and stiffened up the backbone of his children, all of whom became successful and respected citizens".

Walter Woodward was listed on the company rolls of Plymouth Colony among a list of noncommissioned officers and privates in the Scituate Company in 1643, under Captain William Bradford of Plymouth. (Page 74, Pierces's Colonial Lists 1621-1670).

The Woodworth family has been unfortunate that very few known facts have been disclosed concerning the ancestry of Walter. Although a general knowledge has been gained of the Woodworths (Woodward) in England we have not up to this date uncovered the parentage of Walter. However, one point seems to be definate, he did not migrate from Kent County, England as has been indicated in numerous published accounts. It appears that the researcher merely became confused in the fact that Walter did settle in Scituate among the men from Kent County. It has become apparent that the records of those early colonists were poorly recorded and in many cases became lost or destroyed through pillages or acts of Nature. Even a son has been listed indicating Walter's namesake by recording clerks which later had been declared erroneous. The birth dates of Walter's children in most cases are unknown and have necessarily been estimated through documentary evidence.

Walter (Woodward) Woodworth, born in England probably in Lancanshire, between 1610 and 1614. It must be stated that relatively nothing is known of Walter's wife or wives, yet a guess is that she possibly may have been the daughter of Thomas Rogers of the Mayflower, but no actual proof has been found of this, though it seems certain that her first name may have been Elizabeth, and may have come from England with him. Her existence is mentioned in the record of the witchcraft trial of Mary Ingham for bewitching Mehitable Woodworth, daughter of Walter, and "procuring great grief, sorrow and charge to her parents".

Although several theories have been advanced, the most logical one is that Walter arrived in the Colonies on the ship "Mary and John", not from London as did the men from Kent, but from Plymouth, England, and arriving at Nantucket on Massachusetts coast where the entire passenger list was put ashore to shift for themselves, on May 30, 1630. For an account of the voyage, the vessel, and the passengers, we refer you to "The Winthrop Fleet of 1630" by Chas. E. Banks, 1930. Though it is known that there were 140 passengers on this voyage, six names are missing from the parchment, including Walter under "W" and those listed under "I" and "Z". This was one of eleven ships (some say 17) comprising Governor Bradford's fleet which was supplying the colony of Puritans of 1620. Walter made his way to the Plymouth Colony and settled at Scituate, Mass., which is midway between Plymouth and Boston, and the records show that he paid taxes in 1630.

Beginning this genealogy history with the first "Woodworth" to land on American soil. 1630.

Walter Woodworth, emigrant on ship "Mary and John" from Kent, England to Plymouth, Mass. in the spring of 1630. In 1635, they settled at Scituate, Mass. Ten children were born at Scituate.

Walter always mentioned his ten children in the order given below, and since we know Thomas was the eldest and have the dates of birth of Mary and Mehitable, this all fits the order of the Will, we must conclude they were born in this order.

1-Thomas, born about 1640.

A-Sarah, born about 1642. Living in 1685, possible married, no further trace.

2-Joseph, born about 1644.

B-Elizabeth, born about 1646, living in 1685, probably married.

3-Benjamin, born about 1648.

C-Mary, born Mar. 10, 1650. Married Dec. 24, 1677 to Aaron Symons.

Living Jan. 1, 1719.

D-Martha, born 1656, married June 1677, to Zackery Damon.

4-Isaac, born 1658.

E-Mehitable, born Aug. 15, 1662, probably never married.

F-Abigail, born 1666. Married to John Jackson of Plymouth, Dec. 24, 1695.

W-T-THOMAS, son of Walter of Scituate, was born there estimated at about 1640, but one record states it was Feb. 3, 1636. He married probably at Scituate, Feb. 8, 1666, Deborah Damon, born about 1645, daughter of John and Katherine (Merritt) Damon. They resided at Scituate where all the children are recorded. Thomas purchased land at Little Compton, R.I., as early as 1674, although it is not known that he ever lived there. On May 20, 1673, his house was burned by the Indians who had made an incursion into Scituate and committed extensive damage there. In 1690, the town chose Thomas "Clerk of the Market" and annually to the same office until 1711. In 1712, he was chosen "Sealer of Weights and Measures" which is understood to be another name for the same office. He dated his Will, Feb. 13, 1718 and it was proved 3-17-1718 or 19. His wife Deborah was mentioned and his sons, Hezekiah of Little Compton, John, and Ebenezer to have the homestead and daughters, Deborah Pincan, Catherine Danforth, Mary Vinal, ten acres of land, Hannah Jackson and Jerusha Randall. Of the sons of Deborah and Thomas, only Heseekiah had sons who married and left male heirs. The NEHGS Register on Page 220, Vol. 19, states that after Deborah died, Thomas married her sister, Hannah. W-A-SARAH WOODWORTH (dau. and second child of Walter 1 of Scituate) born ca 1642. She was living in 1685 and was probably the Sarah who married Thomas Mann, son of Richard Mann, born 8-15-1650 at Scituate and married before 1679. If the above is true, she must have been born between 1650-1661. This union had 8 children.

2-Thomas, born 4-5-1681, Scituate, Mass.

W-J-JOSEPH WOODWORTH (second son of Walter 1) born perhaps about 1644-45, probably at Scituate, Mass. Married Sarah Stockbridge, 1-6-1669 at Scituate. She was born 3-15-1645, Scituate; baptized 3-15-1645. The oldest daughter of John and Elizabeth (Hatch) Sloan Stockbridge. Sarah's parents willed her ten pounds at marriage. (Dean's History of Scituate, Re: Town Records, Scituate, New England Historical and Genealogical Register, Page 220, Savage Genealogical Dictionary of New England, Page 197). Elizabeth Hatch was born about 1600 and married, first, Robert Sloan of Brosted, County Kent, England and second on Oct. 9, 1643 at Scituate to John Stockbridge, as his second wife. He was a wheel-wright and kept the Mill at Scituate and later a store at Hanover, Mass.

Joseph was a shopkeeper in Scituate and kept his "Trading Post" some 60 rods South of the Stockbridge grist mill and also devoted some time in the Stockbridge Mill. John Stockbridge removed to Boston, leaving Joseph in charge of the Mill. He was a beneficiary in his father's estate and was also appointed as one of the Overseers. In 1665, he was willed some marshland at Scituate by his father; 25 acres of purchased land and some land at Seconett, Little Compton, R.I. (in the Massachusetts Bay Colony).

The Plymouth Colony Records have the following item, "Recorded and admitted as a freeman at ye General Court, held at Plymouth on the first Tuesday of June 1689, Joseph Woodworth and Walter Woodworth of Scituate". On Mar. 24, 1692, William Bradford, Deputy Governor of Plymouth Colony confirmed to the proprietors of Little Compton (in Mass. Bay Colony) the lands within that township. In the preamble of this confirmatory grant or deed, it is said that the proprietors for more than 17 years had the "Seizin and Possession". The first occupation of these lands was in 1674. This deed was made to 21 men, including Joseph, Thomas, Benjamin and Isaac Woodworth. (Page 65, Vol. II, Historical Memoirs of New Plymouth by Baylies).

Joseph witnessed a deed of William Tubb, Sr. on 3-23-1671-72. In the records of the Colony of New Plymouth 7:197, he was one of a jury, 3-7-1675, before Gov. Josiah Winslow. In the same records Page 312 is the Oct. court session, evidently same juror Capt. John Williams of Scituate complained against Joseph Woodworth and other claimers pretended proprietors in partnership with the Plaintiff in undivided lands in Coinhasset. The action was non-suited and 42 shillings allowed the defendants. He made his Will Nov. 3, 1712 and it was proved Jan. 13, 1713. The date of his death has not been established. In his Will, he mentions his wife, Sarah, and children; she having outlived him. He willed to his eldest son, Joseph, "To have all that of my estate, both in housing, lands and meadows lying and being in Little Compton which he, the said Joseph is now in possession and improvement of".

Children:

- 1-Joseph, born 3-19-1670, Scituate, Mass.
- A-Margaret (Mary) born 7-19-1673, Scituate, married in 1704, Stephen Vinal. Another record says she married Joseph Fish. Their children were Rev. Joseph and Nathaniel.
- 2-Benjamin, born Aug. 1676, Scituate
- B-Sarah, born Aug. 1678, Scituate, no record.
- C-Elizabeth, born 1680, Scituate, married 10-10-1701, Thomas Chittendon. She died 6-18-1713.
- D-Eunice, born 1-16-1683; no record.

- Q W-J-1-JOSEPH WOODWORTH (first son of Sarah and Joseph 2)(Walter 1) born 3-19-1670 at Scituate, Mass. Concerning his marriage, we asked this question; "who did Rebecca, born 1679 of Aaron and Mary Woodworth marry?" He married as early as 1694-95, perhaps at Scituate, but removed to Little Compton, R.I.; if not before, where his two children are recorded. His wife was Rebecca as indicated by deeds (See American Genealogist about 1955-56). Her family name has not yet been discovered. One record says he was married in 1694. No record of his wife is known (See Vital Statistics of Rhode Island, Page 73, Vol. IV). They moved in the Baptist migration of Roger Williams to Little Compton, Newport Co., R.I. They later moved to Lebanon, New London Co., Conn., where he was living as late as 1739-40, when his son, Joseph Jr., transferred land to him. A deed for land appears on record there.

The Amey Woodworth, who died at Scituate Feb. 13, 1709-10 described as daughter of Joseph was probably his child. The lack of any age being given may mean that she was an infant and therefore without doubt his daughter. Still she could have been a daughter of Joseph 2, an unrecorded and unmarried one. However, if she was a daughter of Joseph 2, it would seem that her father would have mentioned her in his Will of Feb. 3, 1712. Therefore, we place her as daughter of Joseph 3. It would seem that Joseph had other children than the recorded sons and Amey. A search of the records of both Plymouth Co. and Plymouth and Old Bristol Co. at Taunton might help. So far as is known Joseph and his wife removed to Lebanon, then Windham Co., Conn. about 1726. It has been stated that the records at Lebanon show no evidence of other sons.

Little Compton deeds 17;105 (then Bristol Co., Mass.) 1- March 1725-6 Joseph W. of Little Compton sold dwelling and acreage to Elihu Woodworth for 850 Pounds, he, Joseph having "a good and perfect estate of inheritance in fee simple". Rebecca, his wife released her dower rights the next day.

- A-Amey, born about 1701; died 13 Feb. 1709, Scituate, Mass.

W-J-1-1-JOSEPH WOODWORTH (first son of Rebecca and Joseph 3)(Joseph 2, Walter 1) born 3-17- or 19-1696, Little Compton, R.I.; married 10-17-1723, at Little Compton to Ann Manchester, born 1705. Service performed by Richard Billings, Justice. It is believed that she is the daughter of George and Elizabeth (Bailey) Manchester from Tiverton, R.I. Ann and Joseph removed to Lebanon, Conn. in 1734 with his brother, Jedediah, and their father Joseph 3.

In 1744, a son, Samuel, was recorded in Hebron to "Joseph Woodworth of Lebanon". While it would appear that this Samuel was son of W-J-2, it is somewhat more likely he was the son of Joseph W-B-4, who was called Joseph the third of the same name. Joseph 3 gave deed 13 Feb. 1739-40. Ann died 7-22-1793, Little Compton, R.I., age 88. Joseph died there probably after 1750, but record of his death has not been uncovered.

Abner was probably the grantee of Salisbury, Vt. Nov. 3, 1761, but evidently never settled there. All of the children apparently were born in Lebanon, after which they moved to Salisbury, Conn. After Hannah's death ca 1790, he packed his cobbler's tools and driving a cow, made his way afoot to Pompey, Yates Co., N.Y. to reside with his daughter until his death. Four of his children followed soon thereafter, Elisha, Dyer, Molly and Hannah. Here Abner Woodworth, patriot, served in civil capacity as associate commissioner of Levi Benton in Yates Co., N.Y. as a civil officer. His family was outstanding among those of sterling worth (History of Yates Col, N.Y. by Cleveland)(also referred to as Yerk's Co., N.Y.

Service in the state of Rhode Island. He entered camp 8 Jan. 1778 and served 2 months and the roll dated at Providence 16 Feb. 1778 shows him present. Abner died in the home of his daughter Molly or Mary Woodworth Benton in 1809 at Benton, N. Y., age 84. Buried there in the Old Benton Farm cemetery. W-J-1-1-1-2-DYER WOODWORTH (son of Hannah and Abner 5) born Oct. 20, 1757, Salisbury, Conn. Soldier in Revolutionary War; enlisted in Feb. or Mar. 1776 in Capt. Increase Child's Co. of Col. Livingston's N.Y. Regt. and shortly after was assigned to an armory located at Fort opposite West Point, where he worked for eleven or twelve months assisting in repairing arms under the direction of one Jacob Reeder. After his discharge from this service, he returned to his home in Salisbury, Conn., where he enlisted in July 1778 and served six months in Capt. John Ensign's Company (Connecticut Revolutionary Archives). Arrived in Camp July 7, 1778. Also, "Conn. in the Revolution" page 537 states "Two militia Regiments were ordered to the Hudson soon after the Battle of Monmouth (June 28, 1778) and were stationed at different points, such as Fort Clinton, West Point, ect. They were commanded by Colonels Moseley and Enos". Rolls in part are as follows: Capt. Ensign's Co., Dyer Woodworth arrived in Camp, July 7, 1778.

After the Revolution, Dyer resided in Sheffield, Mass. and in Saratoga Co., N.Y. He moved to Benton, Yates Co., N.Y. about 1798, also at Oblong in Duchess Co. He was a blacksmith, stone cutter and man of general handicraft. He bought a farm in the wilderness near Benton, N. Y. and built a log house in 1799, for his family, with a blacksmith shop near. Later his shop was used for a schoolhouse, until 1803, when a schoolhouse was built. He fashioned two run of stone, wrought from granite boulders found in the vicinity for a grist mill. Those stones are still in use; one covering a well and the other at the north end of the bridge at Bellona, N.Y.

It is not known for certain, the maiden name of Dyer's wife, but since in the 1790 census at Sheffield, Mass. where she and Dyer lived, we find the unusual name of David Rileigh, and since Anne's oldest son was named Rileigh, we assume that her maiden name and that possibly David Rileigh was her father. It is supposed that Dyer married Anne Rileigh, born 1757. In 1814, the entire family moved to Fayette Co., Ind. on the West fork of White Water River. He referred in his pension claim, #217799 to a sister sho at one time lived in Harpersfield, N.Y. (Now in Delaware Co.) but did give her name. He was allowed pension on his application executed Aug. 15, 1832, while residing in Fayette Co., Ind., where he had residence for about nine months. He was a Revolutionary War Pensioner from Fayette Co., Ind. The last payment of pension was made for period from Sept. 4, 1837 to Sept. 4, 1838, and made at Madison, Ind. on Sept. 27, 1838 to Jonathan Eads, as attorney for Dyer. Johanthan Eads was the brother of James Eads, builder of Eads' Bridge, St. Louis, Mo. Anne Woodworth died July 11, 1828, in her seventy-first year. This was taken from the old family bible, which was dated 1816; held by their son, Ryleigh.

Dyer entered land in Franklin Co., Union Twp. on Dec. 4, 1820, $W\frac{1}{2}, N.E\frac{1}{4}$ Sec. 27, $W\frac{1}{2}$ N. W. $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec 27, and $E\frac{1}{2}$, N.E. $\frac{1}{2}$, Sec. 28, all in twp. 14, North Range 10 East and on Dec. 15, 1825, he entered $W\frac{1}{2}$, N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$, Sect. 1, T 13, NR 11E; Orange Twp. Fayette Co., Ind. He appears in the 1820 census of Brookville Twp. Franklin Co., Ind. with one child under 10 and he and his wife over 50. Dyer executed a certificate in Franklin Co., Ind. that he had resided in Indiana for 20 years. Dyer probably died between Sept. 1838 and Sept. 1839 in Fayette Co., near Brookville, Ind. and buried in Ryleigh Woodworth's farm "Little Cedars Cemetery".

NOTE:

Also, in the same neighborhood with Dyer in the 1820 Census appears Joseph Woodworth (who may be Joseph of Conn. Rev. War Service and who probably was Dyer's brother) and wife over 45 years of age with three male and one female children. In the same census for Indiana in Delaware Co., appears Eze Woodworth age 26 to 45 and family. On Apr. 4, 1831, a Benjamin Woodworth entered in Franklin Co., Ind. the E $\frac{1}{2}$, SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 33 T 11 N.R. 13E, but his relationship, if any, to Dyer is unknown.

In the 1830 Census for Indiana shows Woodworths in Counties as follows: Fayette Co., Cornelity and Harriam Woodworth; Green Co., Daniel, Rev. Soldier born 1752 and Lemon S. Woodworth; Randolph Co., Samuel D. Woodworth; Delaware Co., Murray Woodworth,, Vermillion Co., Ezra Woodworth, age 50 to 60.

W-J-1-1-1-2-1-RYLEIGH WOODWORTH (first son of Anne and Dyer 6) (Abner 5, Joseph 4,3,2, Walter 1) born Aug. 1, 1782, Salisbury, Conn., according to his old Bible dated 1816, he was "married on Saturday evening the 30th day of November 1805 to Keturah Newkirk, by Esq. Ryleigh and his family moved from New York State in 1814 to Franklin Co., Ind., where on Feb. 18, 1815, he entered W $\frac{1}{2}$, SW $\frac{1}{4}$, Sec. 9 T8 NR2W, in Brookville Twp., where he erected a large two story stone house (still standing and in use today) and where is located the "Little Cedar" private cemetery for his family. He spent his life on this original land entry. He appears in both the 1820 and 1830 Franklin Co., Brookville Twp. and his wife Keturah in the 1860 census. He was a Master Mason and appears on record in 1818 as a member of Harmony Lodge #11, Brookville, Ind. The Grand Lodge of Indiana report of 1821 shows him as a member and the proceedings of 1826, page 52, shows "Rileigh Woodworth suspended by #11 for nonpayment of dues, Mar.22,1825." He was accorded a Masonic Funeral.

The "Journal of the Proceedings of the Executive Government of the Indiana Territory" shows Ryleigh was commissioned Coronet of Horse in the 7th Regiment, Indiana Militia, May 15, 1816. He served in the War of 1812 from Indiana. Ryleigh died 2-21-1865 at Laurel, Franklin Co., Ind. at the residence of his son-in-law, J. L. Winship. W-J-1-1-1-2-2-ARTEMIDORUS (ARTEMUS D.) WOODWORTH (second son of Anne and Dyer 6)(Abner 5, Joseph 4,3,2) born about 1792, Salisbury, Conn. Married Polly Steel (or Stull) of Seneca, Ontario Co., N.Y. 12-17-1811. They moved West and settled on the West fork of White Water River in Indiana. Artemus and W. G. Campbell erected the first sawmill in the township in 1833, on the West branch of Silver Creek about $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from the junction with the Wabash River. He moved to Huntington Co. to Marion, Grant Co. and later returned to Marion where he died.

On April 2, 1817, he entered East $\frac{1}{2}$ N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ section 26. Dec. 17, 1817 N.W. $\frac{1}{4}$ of Sec. 26. He is also listed as having S.E. $\frac{1}{4}$ section on Dec. 7 1821, all in Twp. 12 N, Range 12 E Brookville, Twp. Franklin Co., Ind.

The Journal of the Proceedings of the Executive Govt. of the Indiana Territory shows that he was commissioned July 22, 1815 as Coronet of Horse in the 7th Regt. Indiana Militia, Mar. 7, 1816 Coronet of Horse in 7th Regt. IM and May 25, 1816, 2nd Lieut. of Horse in 7th Regt. IM. He served as did his brother, in the War of 1812, with a mounted troop patrolling the frontier.

Little is known concerning this family; somehow records have been obliterated. Only one census report has been located and no names of children are given. (An 1820 report was recently located in a Kansas Library but did not clear up the mystery). The 1820 census for Franklin Co., Ind shows the head of the family of Artemus, Ryleigh, Joseph, Dyer and Caleb. For Artemus there 3 males under 10, 1 male 10-15 and 1 male 15-45, which would be Artemus. There were 3 females under 10, 1 female 10-15, and 1 female 26-45; this would be the mother. (Caleb, above is of the Benjamin line) It is believed there are at least two more children born to add to the family. An 1840 census is unreadable and probably cannot be restored and no records have been found in adjacent counties.

A family which is unproven and far from complete has been listed. The fact remains that the parents are known with a family of unnamed children. Those who are believed to have been descendants have no knowledge who their forebears might have been. (Why we have located such a complete history of Ryleigh and find nothing on his brother other than insignificant report is difficult to perceive, and the absence of Vital Records seem puzzling). The reference of Sarah and her brother Elzyphen is the only direct information that Elzyphen was the son of Artemidorus; and Monterville proved brother of Elzyphen.

The History of Huntington Co., Ind. states that Artemus with family of five persons were first settlers in the County, arriving about the middle of Aug. 1814 in Dallas Twp. North of Andrews(Antiock); the land later known as the Wisner farm. He erected the first cabin in the County near what was known as the Cheseboro Lock on the Wabash and Erie Canal. The first log rolling occurred on his farm. He was remembered as a very intelligent and dignified gentleman whos principal fault was his irascible temper.

The listing here given and probably out of order may be at least a portion of the family.

Monterville served during the Civil War, enlisted June 28, 1861 at Canton, Fulton Co., Ill., mustered into service July 12, 1861 at St. Louis, Mo. as a private in Co. I, 8th Reg. Missouri, Inf. Volunteers. Served as a sharpshooter and was with Sherman on his March to the Sea. Was mustered out July 12, 1864 at St. Louis, Mo. He had been shot twice in left arm. Monterville's serial number was 59078, Adj. Generals office State of Missouri. In 1895, he disappeared one day without trace; after 16 years a letter came containing $1,000.00, but even after a nephew sought him out and pleaded for his return, he refused and did not show up in Illinois until a few months before his death. Although having become blind, he made his way from Alaska via Seattle alone to the home of his daughter in Decatur. In 1923 on his return from a prospecting trip to the Northwest, Vancouver, B.C., he had an interview at Decatur, Ill. with a General in regard to his march with Gen. Sherman. Letter from War Dept. Washington, D. C. dated 2-5-1942 to Pearl Carlton:

The name Joseph Woodworth had not been found on the rolls on file in this office of any organization of volunteer soldiers from the State of Pennsylvania, that was in the military service of the United States, covering the period of the War of 1812.

The records show that both Dyer Woodworth and Lewis Woodworth served in that war as privates. Their names appear only on a "Pay Roll of Lieut. Henry Heath's Rifle Company, doing duty at Erie in 137 Reg't Penn. Militia for fifteen days". The roll covers the period from July 23, to August 6, 1813, and shows that each received 5 dollars, for 15 days service. The Regiment is designated 137 Regiment (Terrill's) Pennsylvania Militia (War 1812).

The place of residence is not shown. Service was rendered at Erie, Erie County, Pa.

Implications in the records of Dyre and Lewis Woodworth are that they came from northwestern Pennsylvania. Here the references;

Pennsylvania Archives, sixth series, 9:715, 176. "Receipt roll of Capt James Cochrans Company of riflemen, commencing the 10th day of Aug. and ending the 2nd of Sept. 1812 inclusive. Maj. James Hall, Commandant 1st Batt. 17th Regt. Pennsylvania Militia".

Lewis (but not Dyre) is here listed as a private at $8. per month, serving 23 days and paid $3.83 1/3.

"Pay roll of Capt. James Cochran's Company of riflemen, attached to the 135th Regt. Penn. Militia, Andrew Christy Lt. Col. Commandant commencing the 3rd of Sept. and ending the 12th of Oct. 1812, both days included".

Lewis (only) private at $5. a month, serving 1 month, 10 days and paid $6.66 1/2.

History of Crawford Co., Penn. (Chicago, 1885) 334336

"About the same time (Aug. 19, 1812) Capt. James Cochran's Company of riflemen, recruited in Crawford County, that was in camp at Meadville, also marched to Erie".

After Hull's surrender at Detroit, Aug. 16, 1812, there was great excitement, and a descent upon Erie was feared.

"Very soon more than 2000 men were collected under Gen. Mead, from Crawford, Erie, Mercer and the adjoining counties in defense of that town".

"Unable to find the information wanted. There is no record of birth of a Sarah Harding in 1766 or thereabouts in our General Index of Connecticut Vital Records.

Joseph Woodworth, son of Abner and Hannah was born Oct. 18, 1759 in Salisbury. No record of their marriage is found.

The meagre Harding and Woodworth Genealogy material on file here is of no help on the question. Since we cannot determine who Sarah's father was, we cannot look for his Revolutionary service in our Connecticut Revolutionary records, thus far indexed.

W-J-1-1-1-3-8-CHARLES GRANDERSON WOODWORTH (son of Sarah and Joseph 6)
(Abner 5, Joseph 4, 3, 2, Walter 1) born 4-30-1804 in Western Penn. near Pittsburgh.

Five of the younger children of Joseph and Sarah Hardin Woodworth, Charles, Hiram, John, Lucy and Harriet, migrated to Campbell Co., Ky.
in a covered wagon. About 1827 or 28, Charles migrated to a new frontier, accompanied by his brother Hiram, brother John and Hiram's wife, Polly Glenn Woodworth and their two children, and Lucy and Harriet Woodworth. They went to Hannibal, Mo. but later settled in Hancock Co.
Ill. near Tioga in 1829.

On Dec. 26, 1829, Charles Woodworth married Elizabeth Stone, daughter of Theophilus and Mary Bydeman Stone in Hannibal, Mo. The wedding of Charles and Elizabeth was the first wedding in the village of Hannibal, and all of the eighteen residents attended. The bride wore a blue silk dress, which had been freighted up the Mississippi River from New Orleans. Elizabeth had saved the money she had earned from sewing sacks, to buy her wedding dress material. They were married by Justice of the Peace, Danial Hendricks, Dec. 26, 1829. (Marriage record, Book A, Page 14, County records of Palmyra, Marion Co., Mo.). The party danced all night on a puncheon floor. (This is a floor made from logs, cut smooth on one side). They danced to two tunes that a slave man could play on his banjo.

Charles Woodworth was a hatter by trade. He was also, a farmer in Walker Township, Hancock Co., Ill. and a good mechanic, for those days, well up on machinery and worked on the river boats that came up the Mississippi River. In these early days, Charles liked to drink and had a great desire to quit the habit, so in 1832, they left Hannibal and went to Hancock Co., Ill., near the town of Tioga. It was on this farm that their six children were born.

Elizabeth Stone Woodworth born in 1806, lived at or near Liberty, later Bedford, Va., in 1814 or 15 with her parents and brothers and sisters. They left Liberty or Bedford 4-30-1825 and migrated to what is now Hannibal, Mo., and became the first settlers and builders of Hannibal. The night before they left Virginia, Elizabeth's older sister Polly (Mary) was married to Daniel Philip Aunspach and remained in Va.
Elizabeth, as a girl had walked beside their wagon on the long trek from Virginia to the location where Hannibal, Mo. now stands, on the bank of the Mississippi River.

The Stone family were staunch Presbyterians and Masonic in their creed and affiliations. Theophilus Stone and Mary Bydeman Stone are buried at old Baptist graveyard, Hannibal, Mo. This union had 12 children; among them were Samuel and John, who were in the War of 1812 from Virginia. Henry moved to Mississippi, he dealt in slaves. Theophilus, born 1804 and died 1883 and buried at Hannibal, Mo., married Harriet E. Nash, had a daughter Harriet. Later married Eliza Dickey.
Polly married Boyce of Houston, Texas. Charlotte, aunt of Mary Charlotte Woodworth Hopkins, married Dunning of Childress, Texas. Theophilus Stone, Jr. helped to build Hannibal, Mo. He started the first ferry, a scow, propelled by oars across the Mississippi and ran the first dray ever seen in the town. In 1832, he cultivated a farm and raised corn where the Park Methodist Church and Opera House now stands. He was the brother of great grandmother Woodworth.

Charles and Elizabeth Stone Woodworth are listed in the History of Hancock Co., Ill., Page 972. They lived near Tioga, Ill. at the time the Mormans were getting out of Hancock Co. When the word would be passed that the Mormans were on the move, Elizabeth Woodworth would prepare food and water to last several days, and go into the cornfield to stay until the Mormans had passed. This was during the years their children were small. The Mormans were strong at this time. During these marches, the Mormans stole horses and cattle and burned homes along their route. The Woodworth home was near a Morman settlement of over 100 houses. They had heard Joseph Smith preach in the village.

Elizabeth Stone had brothers who had gone to Missouri from Virginia to trade horses. They were from Bedford Co., in Virginia, which was a poor County. The boys persuaded their father to go to Mo. After Elizabeth and Charles had gone to Hancock Co., from Hannibal, they would come on horseback from Hannibal to get Charles to go back to Hannibal to repair the boats, when they needed repair. Charles died at the farm home near Tioga 9-25-1851. Elizabeth Stone Woodworth died Oct. 3, 1896 at Tioga, Ill. They are buried in Fletcher cemetery, west of Tioga near the Star School House. This is one mile west of the Highway between Quincy and Warsaw (Ill. State #96).

Married 4-15-1849, Tioga, Ill. to John Gillham, born 6-17-1823, Campbell Co., Ky. John Gillham, farmer and Scout, went to California on horseback in 1850, accompanied by his brother Eli D. Gillham; leaving Hancock Co., Ill. April 10, 1850 and returned by the way of the Isthmus of Panama. In 1855, he captained two wagon trains from Hancock Co., Ill. His last trip to Calif. was in 1863, but he made six trips across the plains to Calif. in all. On one trip in 1855, which took three months to make, he took his wife and six months old son, Robert (Bud). Others of the party were his nineteen year old brother-in-law, Edwin Woodworth, Joel Jennifer Eli Gillham, Mr. Marsh and wife and others. They say 100 men were in the party. Two children were born to Ann and John Gillham in Calif., one dying there. John mined and farmed in the Sacramento Valley, living in Sacramento. This family returned to Hancock Co., by boat to the Isthmus of Panama, then crossed the Isthmus; took a boat to New York City and entrained for Hancock Co., Ill.

This was a successful and high type family. The old brick two story homestead stood in Wilcox Township, overlooking the "Bottoms" of the Mississippi River. (History of Hancock Co., Ill. Page 645) The home was torn down about 1958. A modern home stands on the location at present. John Gillham died 7-15-1888, Warsaw, Ill. Ann Henry Gillham died 1-30-1890 in Warsaw, Ill. W-J-1-1-1-3-8-1-EDWIN RUTHERFORD WOODWORTH (son of Elizabeth and Charles 7)(Joseph 6, Abner 5, Joseph 4,3,2, Walter 1) born 1-13-1835, Tioga, Ill. Married 6-3-1873 in Crawford Co., Kansas to Helen Glasgow, born 11-15-1855 Tioga, Ill.

At the age of 16, and at the death of his father, Charles Woodworth in 1851, Edwin assumed the responsibilities of his Mother's farm and assisted her in rearing the four younger children. At the age of 19, when his family was able to dispense with his services, Edwin joined one of the two wagon trains from Hancock Co., Ill., organized by his brother-in-law, John Gillham, for overland migration across the plains and mountains to the gold fields of Calif. John Gillham was not only an Ill. bottom land farmer, but an Indian Scout as well. He made six trips across the plains to Calif.; the first in 1849 and the last in 1863.

On April 10, 1855, the Hancock County Cavalcade, captained by John Gillham, started westward, as fully equipped as was possible for those times. They took cows with them which provided Cream, milk and butter for the emigrants. This wagon train included Ann Woodworth Gillham and six months old son, Robert (Bud) young wife and son of the captain; the 20 year old brother-in-law, Edwin Woodworth, a brother, Eli Gillham; neighbors Joel Jennifer and wife and others.

The emigrant train crossed the Mississippi River at Keokuk, Iowa, then to Council Bluffs and ferried across the Missouri River at Omaha, Nebr. (Only one house was in Omaha at this time). Then westward across Nebr., they followed the Platte River from near themouth to the source, tipped the Rockies, North to Salt Lake City, Utah. This was the first emigrant train to cross following the tragedy of the Mountain Meadow Massacre, and since the train was from Hancock Co., Ill., where the Mormans had previously been driven from Nauvoo and Carthage neighborhoods, the party was very apprehensive; they kept a strict lookout for Mormons from Salt Lake City, as well as for Indians. However, they were not molested. They hit the Humboldt River near Wells, Nevada and followed this river to the Humboldt Sink-Donner Lake.

They crossed the High Sierras at Truckee Pass, and wearily and slowly dropped down the western slope. They stopped at the mining town of Hangtown, Calif.(now Placerville) in midsummer, after a wearisome three months trip. (One authority says they were six months in route, per Herschel Gillham, however, this could have been confused with John Gillham's first trip).

In the story of the trek from Hancock County, Ill. to the gold fields of Calif., the epic is replete with interest and humor. It was approximately 2060 miles from the Missouri River to Sacramento, Calif. and the legend of this trek was filled with events, the topography, the mountain passes and streams, the Indians, etc; as though El Dorado's gold were commonplace and at our own doorstep; and as common as the detailed account of the journey, the route, the trail, water, personal experiences, Habits, food, even crossings and accidents, which Edwin Woodworth often repeated.

This journey terminated at a spot called Placerville, today. In the gold rush days, it was called "Hangtown" because so many men were hanged there. While the unfortunate victims are dummies now, they were real men once, who dangled from the branches of "Hangman's Tree" frequently. Little is left except the scenery and the memories, to link this frontier community with the "Dry Diggins" and "Hangtown" of a century ago.

Once the Pony Express riders dashed through the town on their dangerous journeys, once the mule teams and the Concord coaches rolled to and fro, from the Comstock Lode area in Nevada and made the road musical with bells. Once the freighters language rolled up the peaks of the Sierra Nevada in a gorgeous paean of profanity, and once the presidential candidate, Horace Greely, stayed over night at the old Raffles Hotel, across the street from Hangman's Tree. Once James Marshall discovered gold at Sutter's Mill on the American River, Jan. 24, 1848, and while this was at Coloma, still Coloma was only "next door" to Hangtown of yesteryear, and the cause of the influx.

Arriving at Hangtown, Edwin Woodworth and a Mr. Marsh formed a partnership and mined gold, the Fall of 1855. But Edwin worked at a disadvantage. He had been lame since childhood from infantile paralysis; besides he did not like the rough element among the miners, nor the frequent hangings. John Gillham owned a mine at "Star Hill" but it did not yield much. Edwin went to Marysville, and worked for a truck garden farmer, for nearly four years. He made more than he would have at mining gold. He then bought the vegetable farm and ran it. He sold the farm for $2500.00, went to San Francisco and took ship to Panama, making one stop enroute at Acapulco, Mexico on the lower tip of the Peninsula of Lower Calif. He had sewed the money in gold in a belt and carried it around his waist. A railroad train took him across the Isthmus of Panama, then again, sailed northward to New York City. He reached New York City in Jan 1861 and rode into the harbor in a heavy snowstorm.

Edwin spent a few days sightseeing in New York. He visited Barnum's Museum for 10 cents; he attended the theatre; but there were no skyscrapers, no Goddess of Liberty, no Grant's tomb, and no Aquarium. He entrained for his old home in Hancock Co., Ill.; bought land and farmed for eight years. His lameness had disqualified him for army service in the Civil War.

In 1868, he rode horseback (rode "Old Jeff" a very fine horse that he kept and cared for as though this horse were a person, until Old Jeff died of old age) to southeastern Kansas. In 1868, Edwin bought a relinquishment of a claim from a Mr. Weekly, and proved up on the land. (But he did not receive the patent from the government until 1886, when Grover Cleveland, President of the U.S. signed the patent, dated Dec. 28, 1868.)

This land was a part of the "Osage Ceded Land" which the U.S. Government had ceded to the Railroad Co. as an inducement for them to build a railroad through the new territory. But the Railroad charged the settlers $2.25 per acre. They contested the price and Edwin Woodworth, Woody Herod, Jake Carson and Tom Wheeler went to a trial at Uniontown, Kansas where the settlers won out and ended by their paying the Railroad Co., $1.25 per acre. 80 acres of Edwin's land was in Mission Township, Neosho Co., Kans. and 80 acres was in Walnut Grove Township, or a total of 160 acres. Later Edwin purchased 40 acres in Grant Township, Crawford Co., Kans. from his brother, James.

James and Annie Woodworth came to Kansas in 1871 and lived with Edwin until they built a home for themselves on their homestead land adjoining on the South. Edwin and Helen Glasgow, sister of Annie, James' wife were married in 1873. The two brothers formed a partnership and fed and shipped cattle, "Woodworth Bros." until 1884 or 1885, when this partnership was dissolved.

Edwin and Helen bought a homestead in Timber Hill, Labette Co., Kansas and lived there a year during which time 1875, the oldest daughter, Anna, was born. They returned to the original home, near Walnut, Kansas, where Edwin continued to farm, raise and feed cattle and grew a herd of full blood shorthorn cattle. In 1906, they retired and moved to a home purchased in Walnut, Kansas, renting the farm and later selling the 80 acres in Walnut Grove Twp. Edwin died 12-9-1919, Walnut, Kansas. His remains were cremated. The ashes placed in family burying lot, Glenwood Cemetery at Walnut. Helen Glasgow Woodworth died 3-2-1933, Walnut, Kansas; buried in Glenwood Cemetery, Walnut, Kansas.

James Robert Hopkins learned the Mercantile business under his father in Illinois and Kansas. He later became a salesman for a wholesale grocery house; then a specialty tea salesman and traveled over the United States. In 1901, he went to China, Japan and Pormosa as tea buyer for 38 large wholesale houses, with letter of credit of nearly three quarters million dollars. (about $700,000.00) He bought 60 car loads of tea. In 1903, he went into the wholesale tea business for himself. Later when the U.S. consumption of tea declined, he built up an Oriental Importing business with annual buying trips to the Orient. He stocked his four story wholesale house in St. Joseph, Mo. with teas, silk, rugs, china, pottery, satsuma and cloisonne, grass and reed furniture and Oriental rugs. Later, he eliminated the buying of tea entirely and developed the improvement in the manufacture of grass rugs and furniture in Japan, as well as furnishing designs in patterns for china (tableware) made in the Orient, for American consumption.

When in 1938, as strained international conditions with Japan, began to be manifest, James R. Hopkins had made 39 buying trips to the Orient and his salesmen traveled by automobile through 38 states in the Union, selling Oriental goods. His last trip to the Orient was in 1939. Since July 1941, there was no business as far as Japan and J. R. Hopkins, Inc. was concerned. The United States and Japan were at war after Dec. 7, 1941. He later developed a trade with Mexico, mainly baskets.

James R. Hopkins was an authority on the growing of fruits, plants, flowers, vegetables, etc. His hobby was a rare garden with Asiatic plants palms, flowers mingled with perfect American specimens. The landscaped lawn of his white pillared brick home in St. Joseph, Mo. contained a profusion of bloom and rare shrubbery and oriental palms. The lily pool of unusual Chinese water lilies was outstanding. He was a connoisseur of Oriental antiques, embroideries, carved ivory, cloisonne, Satsuma, rugs, tapestries and chinaware, and had a rare collection of Oriental items in his home.

Copy of a letter which Arthur Woodworth wrote to his half brother and wife Hiram C. and Harriet Woodworth:

Pontcoosic, Ill.
Aug. 16th, 1893

Dear brother and sister:

It is my painful duty of informing you of our dear father's death. (John Harding Woodworth's death)

After an interval of extreme bleeding from the piles, he finally bled to death and died a peaceful death this morning at 1:30 O'clock.

He realized the end had come and welcomed it. He had not one fear. He trusted Jesus entirely and was glad to be with him at last. He longed to see you both and spoke of you at the last saying just before he died "Where is Hiram?".

He told me Monday afternoon that he knew he would meet Hiram and Hattie in Heaven and Oh how he loved us. Dear sister and brother, our father loved his children very dearly. He cherished every little act of kindness we ever did him. He forgot we ever grieved him, and said we never did. He lived a blessed Christian life and died a Christian death, sweetly sustained and soothed by an unfaltering trust in the Lamb of God that taketh away the sins of the world.

His teachings have sunk deep in all our hearts. They have been the means of bringing us through Christ to seek God's mercy and forgiveness. I have started in to serve God. I am determined to trust him and live as he teaches. And I firmly believe that Father's prayers will prevail and that as he often prayed we shall form an unbroken family before God's throne.

Coleman and Eleanora, George and Mary, Hattie and myself were with him at the last. He died sweetly and peacefully after 3 or 4 hours of great suffering.

We will bury him tomorrow at 9:00 a.M. He is beautiful in death, his face serene and peaceful, not drawn and haggard.

Write to me soon and tell me how you are getting along. You have not written for a long time and I am very uneasy about you, and so was father.

Cole is in better health than usual. We are all tolerable well.

Your loving brother

Arthur Woodworth

Sarah and David resided at Currytown, N.Y., where he farmed 1200 acres. David fought in the Revolutionary War along with his brother, Smith, Jr. There appears to have been a close relationship between the Woodworths and Parkes, for at one time a loan was made by Lionel Woodworth to Smith Parke, Jr. The indenture made the 18th Sept. 1826, the same year Smith Jr.'s mother died, and was consummated at Hunter in Greene Co., N.Y. Smith, Sr. lived at Preston and then Sharon, Conn.; then moved his family to Canaan, N.Y. in 1780, where he owned 600 acres of land, granted by King George. Sarah died 2-10-1841, Currytown, N.Y. and both buried in a private cemetery on the Keller farm near Currytown, surrounded on three sides by the farmland he so loved. They had 10 children, one dying in infancy; all presumably born at Currytown.

It is known that Lemuel and his family were living in Schoharie Co., N.Y. in 1793 and they were converted to Methodism there at that time. However, it is probable they were living in Albany Co. a possible error in recording. "In 1806, Lemuel and Lydia, with her brother and his sister, Matthew and Anna (Woodworth) Winter and their families came from Scotts Patent in Schoharie Co. or near by in Albany Co. and settled in East Jewett, then called East Kill, where they remained for the rest of their lives." W-J-1-2-1-4-BERIAH WOODWORTH (fourth son of Rebecca and Constant 5)(Jedediah 4, Joseph 3,2, Walter 1) born 5-23-1765 at Lebanon, Conn. Married at Hanover, N.H., Oct. 1789 to Nancy Moores. He was there in 1790 census with family consisting of self, wife and son under 16, but he was not listed in 1800 census in Vermont and no further record has been found.

W-J-1-2-2-BENJAMIN WOODWORTH (second son of Margaret and Jedediah 4(Joseph 3,2, Walter 1) born probably at Lebanon, Conn. or Little Compton, R.I. and is the Benjamin, whose death is recorded on Lebanon V R. 4 Feb. 1799 in 30th year. This would make his birthdate as ca 1729, but there is no proof and much confusing data. It would appear that he was married and that he was probably the father of the Benjamin, who later resided at Bethel, Vt. and who stated he was born in 1756 in East Windsor, Conn. in the part now known as Ellington. A descendant states he was born 2-6-1757 at Tolland, Conn. and that his mother was Sarah McKinney, that the father died and soon after she married Joseph Cogswell. However there is no clear proof of this line. He could also be the "lost" son of Benjamin 4, returned from Nova Scotia after death of father in 1766. While this Benjamin 4 is said to have married Hannah Bill, there seems to be no evidence that he did. A probable son:

1-Benjamin, b. 2-2-1757, Tolland, Conn.

W-J-1-2-2-1-BENJAMIN WOODWORTH (son of Benj 5 and Sarah)(Jedediah 4, Joseph 3,2, Walter 1) born 2-2-1757, Tolland, Conn. Ten children are listed but without record other than two birth places and census reports.

W-J-1-2-3-WILLIAM WOODWORTH (third son of Margaret and Jedediah 4)(Joseph 3,2, Walter 1) born ca 1731, probably at Little Compton, R.I. or Lebanon, Conn. and evidently died in Kings Co., N.S. sometime after 1767. He married about 1752, prob. at Hanover, Mass. to Sarah Blackmore, who was born about 1736 and probably the daughter of John Blackmore of Hanover, Mass. She died at Cornwallis, N.S. 11-10-1767, age 31, leaving a small family. Nothing further has been learned of William although it is possible that he remarried. He removed with his family to Cornwallis, N.S. early in 1760 from Lebanon or Hebron vicinity, where he seemed to have lived after marriage. He was one of the first settlers in Cornwallis and on 7-25-1763 received a grant of several hundred acres; 6662/3 acres being in each grant. He recorded the births of all his children on the Cornwallis records, according to Dr. Brechin, although the first three were born before the arrival at Cornwallis. After the mother died some of the children returned to the States, perhaps to be brought up in the family of relatives, probably by their grandfather Jedediah, who was yet alive and living in Lebanon, Conn.

The strong desire for the continuance of the name, Amey, is thus manifested. She married 11-29-1764 at Mansfield, Conn. to Timothy Clark, who was born in Mansfield 12-26-1745. They removed to Rockingham (Windham Co) Vt., where she died 1-4-1818.

(Daughter of Sarah (Joy) and Nathaniel Cudworth) Benjamin died at Scituate ca 1762. There has been frustrating confusion of the Benjamins due to the absence of recorded dates but the difficulty seems to have been ironed out. Only two children are definitely known but there may have been a third as is listed.

Children:

1-Benjamin, born 6-15-1750, Scituate, Mass. Baptized 6-17-1750.

A-Anna, m. Johnston

B-Ruth, m. Randall, 1795

W-J-2-1-1-BENJAMIN WOODWORTH (son of Hannah and Benjamin 4)(Joseph 3,2, Walter 1) born 6-15-1750, Scituate, Mass. and died there 8-5-1830. His father died when he was about 12 and as the family had very little means Benjamin found it necessary to start working almost at once. From records left by his son, Samuel (6) it appears that Benjamin was employed as lad-of-all work in the family of an Episcopal clergyman, the Rev. Ebenezer Thompson, rector of St. Andrews church in the south parish of Scituate and among other duties rang the bell in this church. At a later date he was bound an apprentice to a house carpenter in Boston in accordance with the earnest request of his dying father that he should acquire a mechanical trade and not follow the sea. However, as he was of an adventurous nature he soon relinquished his trade and became a sailor. At the age of 25, he enlisted as a private at Cambridge and was at the taking of Dorchester Heights. He served first in Capt. Otis' company of "Royal Americans of Scituate" as private; then in Capt. Samuel Stockbridge's company of Col. John Thomas Regiment. Later he was a Sergeant in Capt. W. Barkers Company. After completing his army term to embark on a privateer, in which service he continued until the autumn of 1778, when he became engaged to and married the oldest daughter of Samuel Bryant and Mary (Buck) Bryant. The young couple set up housekeeping in a small humble house in The Harbor, where Steinbook's store now stands. Here their four children were born. Abigail Bryant was born at Scituate 12-31-1747. She and Benjamin announced their intentions to marry 11-14-1778 and were married 11-26-1778. Abigail died about 1802.

Benjamin married second 5-8-1803 at Scituate to Betty (Brown) Northey, the widow of Capt. Joseph Northey. He moved with his children to her home. This house and farm has been in the possession of the Northey family since 1675, at which time John Northey had purchased it from Thomas Ingham (whose wife, Mary, had been tried for bewitching Mehitable, dau of Walter (1) Woodworth). This house is still standing and is occupied by direct descendants. As one of the historic points of interest in Scituate and the site of "The Old Oaken Bucket" it is beautifully maintained and contains many relics of the Woodworths and especially of the well known son, Samuel.

The original bucket bail from the old oaken bucket at the well is now in the Cudworth House Museum of the Historical Society. This was obtained by Rev. Daniel Wright, Jr. (Minister 1842-58). This well was in use as late as 1965. In 1826, the original homestead was built on to and the original part is still used.

He married Rachel Dicks of Detroit, Mich. ca 1805 and after an interesting and varied career died at Detroit in 1878. First Benjamin was a carpenter at Boston and in 1824 went to Detroit, where he became enterprising, popular and prosperous. He operated the first stage coach in Michigan, built the first brick house in Detroit and for many years kept the best hotel there. He served in Capt. Shibley's Regiment in War of 1812. In 1844, he lost a large amount of his property by fire and then removed to St. Clair, upstream from Detroit to live with only surviving daughter. He died at age of 86. A daughter of Abigail wrote W.A.W., "I have reason to be proud of my ancestors; to be sure in the long run, poverty instead of wealth were theirs, but they were always possessed of honesty and nobleness of character, which are far greater treasures than riches." Benjamin was popularly known all over the state of Michigan as "Uncle Ben". He was unfortunate with his family as eight of the twelve children died young.

He died in New York City 12-9-1842; body removed to San Francisco and buried in Laurel Hill cemetery. During the years much has been written about Samuel and the "Old Oaken Bucket" often depicted. He learned the printer's trade at Boston and devoted much of his time to writing verses. In 1809, he removed to New York City and established a weekly newspaper with George F. Morris and afterward with N.P. Willis began the publication of the "New York Mirror" (One report says he published a weekly paper from 1812-14, called "The War". This came out every Tuesday at 60 Vesey St. (See Compendium of American Genealogy) He authored the "Old Oaken Bucket" and numerous other stanzas, which some years ago were published by Scribner and Co. The elder son collected these poems after his death and had them published, but the volume became mostly a library and historical collection.

The family was poor as it was with many others during the early days. In spite of efforts to eke out an existance he was repeatedly reduced to poverty. Often benefit performances were given by friends. An apoplexy attack in 1837 resulted in paralysis and he lingered in a crippled state until his death at his New York home. Some of his acquaintances were men such as Robert Fulton, the inventor, Webster, Channing, Everett, Sir Walter Scott and John Howard Payne. Samuel was very fond of his Mother and at the age of 14, he stood at her grave and wrote 50 stanzas "My Mothers Grave". He was amiable and had a reputation of great honesty. In religion he was an ardent Swedenborgian. His father's home at Scituate long remained in possession of the Northey family. The curbstone of the well is there, but the bucket is reported to come into possession of Rev. Daniel Wright of South Scituate, who died in South Nantick, Middlesex Co., Mass. years ago.
